The Stephen Jarislowsky Chair in Religion and Conflict,
"Are Limits on Religious Expression Becoming a Trend in Canada?" on Wednesday, Feb. 5 at 7 pm at the Signature Events Centre, 3310 Dougall Ave., Windsor.
"The rise of secularism in Quebec with Bill 21 has prompted questions as to the future of religious expression in Canadian society, particularly with regard to wearing religious symbols and attire. This panel will consist of local community members from four different religious backgrounds. Each panelist will be asked to share their thoughts on the current state of religious expression in Canada and speculate as to whether religious symbols will become less visible as time progresses." All are welcome and admission is free, with discussion and refreshments to follow. For more information please call Cecile at 519-973-7033 and press '0' (zero).

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
3e dimanche du temps ordinaire

January 26 janvier, 2020

3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

The life of a disciple calls for repentance and courage.

Jesus fulfils all prophecy and brings light to our darkness. He calls his disciples out of their way of life – from fishermen to fishers of men. He calls us to follow him, too, so as to bring light, truth and goodness into a world that needs repentance.

3e dimanche du temps ordinaire

Proche des éloignés

Le royaume des Cieux se fait proche des éloignés. En Jésus Christ, les négligés de la promesse ont part au même héritage que le peuple élu. Ainsi, sa lumière rayonne pour tous ceux et celles «qui habitaient dans le pays et l'ombre de la mort».
