Most Holy Trinity

God is one and yet three – a Trinity of pure love.
Today's feast is a celebration of God's self-revelation to us through the mystery of the Incarnation. For it is in Christ that we come to know that within the Godhead there is a Trinity of three divine persons to whom belong all glory, praise, and honor, and from whom all life flows.

La Sainte Trinité

«Daigne marcher au milieu de nous»

La fête de la Trinité nous rappelle que le Père, le Fils et l'Esprit ne peuvent pas être séparés. C'est une célébration d'abord de l'unicité de Dieu. Dans chacune des personnes divines, c'est la même miséricorde qui agit et nous touche.

Prayer for the Sick

Jesus our Lord,
we ask you to have mercy on all who are sick.
Give them your strength and love,
and help them to carry this cross with faith.
May their sufferings be one with yours,
overcome the power of evil,
and lead others to our Father in heaven.
Lord Jesus, hear our prayer,
for you are Lord for ever and ever.
Amen.

MESSAGE DE LA PENTECÔTE AUX MOUVEMENTS ET ASSOCIATIONS CATHOLIQUES DU CANADA

Chers membres des mouvements et associations,
Le temps s'est arrêté... mais l'Esprit souffle!
Les frontières se sont fermées, l'isolement se fait sentir, la distanciation fait son œuvre bien que l'on trouve moyen de rester liés par divers médias et technologies. À travers la pandémie, l'humanité encerclée par une même souffrance entre dans la recherche solidaire de solutions pour épargner les populations, surtout les gens fragilisés du côté de la santé, de l'emploi : chacun de nous est atteint par la question « qui sommes-nous? ».

L'humain responsable cherche nécessairement le contrôle des situations et la science y va de ses pronostics.

L'expérience de Pentecôte a permis aux disciples d'entrer dans une grande ouverture pour continuer avec l'Esprit Saint la mission de Jésus sur toute la terre. Le Cénacle n'est plus un caveau et l'audace a succédé à la peur. On dit que ce ne sera plus pareil après la Covid-19 : notre façon de faire Église, nos manières de penser le monde, de vivre ensemble... Depuis la Pentecôte, tout a basculé du côté d'un avenir ouvert à jamais par l'Amour et porté par la fécondité du Royaume. Chacun doit travailler à ce que reste ouvert cet avenir. Éclairée par la foi, l'expérience humaine de précarité et de fragilité devient une chance pour vivre la grâce d'écoute et d'abandon, de guérison et de discernement avec le Souffle de Dieu.

Comme pour les deux disciples, la boussole du cœur brûlant pour Dieu marque notre regard d'espérance. Beaucoup d'initiatives et de disponibilités nous ont dévoilé la grandeur des proches aidants et des travailleurs de soutien des milieux de santé. Elle est aussi là la Pentecôte qui déconfiner la paix et abaisse les éloignements dus au péché.

À tous les groupes et associations portés par l'enthousiasme de la mission, joie et audace dans l'après Covid où l'Esprit Saint crée et recrée!

An Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Un acte de prière de communion spirituelle

Mon Jésus, je crois que Tu es présent dans le Très Saint Sacrement. Je T'aime par-dessus tout, et je désire Te recevoir dans mon âme. Puisque je ne peux pas Te recevoir en ce moment de façon sacramentelle, viens au moins spirituellement dans mon cœur. Je T'embrasse comme si Tu étais déjà là et je m'unis entièrement à Toi. Ne permets jamais que je sois séparé de Toi. Amen.

PENTECOST MESSAGE TO CATHOLIC MOVEMENTS AND ASSOCIATIONS

Dear members of Movements and Associations,

Time has ground to a halt – but the Spirit is moving!

Borders are closed, isolation is making itself felt, physical distancing is taking its toll even though we are finding ways to stay connected by various technologies and other media. Through this pandemic, humanity, surrounded by a shared suffering, has embarked on common quest for solutions that will spare people, especially those who are vulnerable on account of their health or employment. Every one of us is affected by the question, “Who are we?”.

Human beings, by virtue of their sense of responsibility, cannot but seek to control situations, and to use their knowledge to forecast what will happen.

The experience of Pentecost allowed the disciples to enter into an attitude of tremendous openness that allowed them to continue Jesus' mission throughout the whole world, with the Holy Spirit. The Upper Room was no longer a hiding place, and boldness took the place of fear. They say things will never be the same after Covid-19: the ways we have of being Church, our ways of thinking about the world, of living together... Ever since Pentecost, everything has shifted towards a future forever opened by Love and borne along by the Kingdom's abundance. Each one of us must labour to ensure that this future remains open. Enlightened by faith, the human experience of precariousness and fragility is an opportunity for each person to live the grace of listening and of self-abandonment, of healing and of discernment with the Spirit of God.

As was the case for the two disciples, the compass of a heart that is burning for God guides our hopeful gaze. Many initiatives and examples of willingness to help have revealed the greatness of caregivers and health-care workers. That too is Pentecost, releasing peace from its lockdown and breaking down the distances created by sin.

To all groups and associations borne along by enthusiasm for the mission, may we wish you joy and audacity in that post-Covid time where the Spirit will be at work creating and recreating!

The Law Society of Ontario has launched an emergency family law referral telephone line to provide assistance to people who are self-represented (SRLs) and who are trying to determine whether or not their family court matter meets the criteria to be heard by the Court on an “urgent” basis and, if so, how to proceed in making their request. This emergency service will connect SRLs with family lawyers, working on a pro bono basis, who will provide 30 minutes of legal advice specific to determining whether or not their family court matter is urgent and referrals to other available legal services. To access this service, which will be staffed during business hours, SRLs may contact the Law Society by phone at the following numbers:
