Praying Together, Praying Apart: At-Home Prayers for Times of Healing (Liturgical Press).

Amid self-isolation and physical distancing, an increasing number of people are experiencing sickness and death separated from other people. This resource strives to offer some concrete ways to pray, heal, and grieve together.

Integral Ecology

The Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development recently announced a special Laudato Si' anniversary year from May 24, 2020 to May 24, 2021. A major theme in Pope Francis' Laudato Si' is Integral Ecology. A beautifully designed brochure has been prepared by the diocese to help promote a deeper understanding of Integral Ecology that includes a summary of the main concepts and a list of actions people can take to protect the environment, to support the anniversary year and the important messages in Laudato Si', "It is hoped this anniversary year and the ensuing decade will indeed be a time of grace, a true Kairos experience and "Jubilee" time for the Earth, and for humanity, and for all God's creatures."

Did you know?

If you are able to help, now is a great time to make a donation to the Parish Building Fund. The time is right as the Diocese will not be charging the parish any interest on our loan for the rest of 2020. This means that any donations made to the Building Fund until the end of the year will go directly against the loan principal and reduce our loan balance accordingly. This is an important opportunity for those that can manage any extra donations.

Le saviez-vous?

Si vous pouvez aider, c'est le moment idéal pour faire un don au fonds de construction de la paroisse. Le moment est opportun car le diocèse ne chargera à la paroisse aucun intérêt sur notre prêt pour le reste de l'année 2020. Cela signifie que tout don fait au Fonds de construction jusqu'à la fin de l'année sera directement déduit du capital du prêt et réduira le solde de notre prêt en conséquence. Il s'agit d'une opportunité importante pour ceux qui peuvent faire un don supplémentaire.

*We love ... serve ... give because Jesus first loved,
served and gave himself for us!*

*Nous aimons ... nous servons ... nous donnons
parce que Jésus a d'abord aimé, servi et donné de lui-même pour nous !*

25th Sunday in Ordinary time

God's love and mercy are never-ending.

Isaiah advises us to seek the Lord, an activity we might think of as being complete as soon as we come to believe in him. But really, this is an invitation to grace – a grace that is constant, always available, and generous in its forgiveness. It is a promise of deep and perpetual care by a God who is completely different from us in his thoughts and ways, and yet never-ending in his love and mercy.

25e dimanche du temps ordinaire

Ce n'est pas juste!

Les manières d'agir et de penser de Dieu diffèrent des nôtres. En bonté, en sagesse, en générosité, en miséricorde, il surpasse tout ce que nous pouvons imaginer. Au point de nous scandaliser comme dans la parabole des ouvriers de la onzième heure.

An Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Un acte de prière de communion spirituelle

Mon Jésus, je crois que Tu es présent dans le Très Saint Sacrement. Je T'aime par-dessus tout, et je désire Te recevoir dans mon âme. Puisque je ne peux pas Te recevoir en ce moment de façon sacramentelle, viens au moins spirituellement dans mon cœur. Je T'embrasse comme si Tu étais déjà là et je m'unis entièrement à Toi. Ne permets jamais que je sois séparé de Toi. Amen.

The 106th World Day of Migrants and Refugees will be celebrated on Sunday, September 27.

With the title "Like Jesus Christ, forced to flee", Pope Francis urges us this year to discover the reality of internally displaced people more deeply. Every month, a new video of Pope Francis and other multimedia materials delve into the sub-themes present in the message of the Holy Father. The past sub-themes were "To know in order to understand", "To be close in order to serve", "To listen in order to be reconciled". Today, we invite you to watch the fourth, newly released video, in which the Holy Father explores the sub-theme "To share in order to grow". It offers the real-life testimony of an internally displaced person who describes how sharing makes us more human, makes us believe more in God and feel that we are His children. In the video, the Holy Father urges us to share in order to grow together, without leaving anyone out. To view the video go to:

September is

Childhood Cancer Awareness Month,

a national campaign to help millions of young Canadians receive the support and resources they need to combat life threatening cancers. On average it can take up to five blood donors to help one child undergoing cancer treatment. It can take as many as eight donors a week to help a child with leukemia. Blood donations will greatly assist children who rely on the generosity of blood donors. It is one of the most direct ways to help someone.

Fight Like Mason Blood Drive

is scheduled at St. Simon & St. Jude Parish Hall located at 267 Meunier St., Belle River on Tuesday, September 22 from 12 p.m. – 7 p.m.

We are currently only accepting donors with scheduled appointments this is in compliance with the health agencies request to maintain safe physical distancing.
